WINE & CHAMPAGNE LIST

Champagne

Taittinger "Prélude" Grands Crus Brut NV

Prélude is produced exclusively from Grand Cru vineyards, the blend composed of Chardonnay primarily from Avize and Le Mesnil sur Oger in the Côte des Blancs, and half of Pinot Noir mainly from Bouzy and Ambonnay in the Montagne de Reims. The wine's brilliant, pale yellow color with silvery reflections indicates the high proportion of Chardonnay. On mouth is subtle and fresh on the nose, with mineral aromas that quickly give way to notes of elderflowers and spicy cinnamon. In the mouth, lean mineral Chardonnay notes delicately balance the aromatic strength of Pinot Noir. The lively palate is dominated by fresh citrus and white peaches in syrup.

$ 140

Cattier Icône Brut

Made from twenty different Crus, the Brut Icône Cattier is produced primarily using pinot grapes. The perfect combination of power and finesse, it owes its complexity to these pinot varieties and from the older wine added to the blend. The result is a generous champagne, brimming with vitality.

$ 150

Drappier Carte d'Or Brut

The Carte d'Or cuvée is the very expression of the Drappier style. With its very high proportion of Pinot Noir, one is almost tasting a Blanc de Noirs. Champagne with a fine aromatic richness, it opens with aromas of stoned fruits such as white vineyard peach

$ 180

Comte de Montaigne Cuvée Spéciale Brut NV

It has a dark gold color with an intense perlage rich in fine and persistent bubbles. On the nose the aromas at the first smell are clearly of red fruit. Hints of black fruit combined with delicate aromas of spices and bread crust if the bottle takes air. On the palate it reveals a broad and finely woody sensation, confirming the olfactory impression. A subtle balance between complexity and finesse, fine and elegant bubbles.

$ 185

Krug 167^Éme Édition Grand Cuvée Brut

The art of blending many years give Krug its unique plethora of flavors and aromas incredibly generosity and absolute elegance that would be impossible to express with a wine of single year.

$ 595

Moët & Chandon Dom Pérignon Brut 2012

The Dom Pérignon champagne has notes of blossom, apricot, and citrus on the nose with minerality and white pepper. On the palate, it has the bright, high levels of acidity and the rich fruit flavors that Dom Pérignon is known for. There are hints of ginger and toastiness, too.

$ 650

Louis Roederer Cristal Brut 2013

A wine of pure pleasure and a sophisticated gastronomic wine, Cristal is both powerful and delicate, combining subtlety and precision, is a remarkably balanced and refined Champagne whose length is inimitable. It has a silky texture and fruity aromas, complemented by a powerful mineral quality with white fruit and citrus notes

Rosé Champagne

Moët & Chandon Dom Perignon Rosé Brut 2006

Rose gold, coppery, deep hue. With air, the initially creamy, rich nose gives way to notions of soft, freshly baked rye crumb and dried blood orange peel. The palate opens with a certain juiciness and fills the senses with its fine mousse. Then there is a spicy saltiness, reminiscent of maple syrup, alongside a very pleasantly bitter edge. It is this, rather than acidity, that counters the richness, which is like a picture of salted, toasted caramel biscuit. A gentle freshness persists along with that spice.

Trentino

Trento Doc

Ferrari “Perlé Nero” Brut 2010

This Blanc de Noirs is the result of forty years’ experience of a variety as complex and delicate as Pinot Noir. Bright golden highlights, embellished by perlage of rare finesse. On the nose Spectacular complexity on the nose, full of tropical sensations and scents that range from fruity to mineral and even toast-like, with intriguing notes of peanut butter. Sumptuous in taste, framed by razor-sharp tanginess and a citrus-like freshness.

$ 110

Franciacorta D.o.c.g.

Bellavista Vendemmia Satèn 2014

Bellavista Satèn welcomes us with a plentiful and creamy mousse that stands out for its perfect and continuous head. Its perlage is extremely fine and persistent and the quivering lines of pearls are very clear, thin and well-distributed. The colour is straw yellow with slight golden tinged. The scent is intense and soothing and opens up into a complex and exquisite bouquet of peach blossom, citrus fruit, honey and hazelnuts.

Sauvignon Blanc “Alteni di Brassica” Gaja 2019

Alteni di Brassica. Is produced from vineyards located in Treiso and Serralunga d’Alba. Rather, they are synonymous with the region's first Sauvignon Blanc, which Angelo Gaja has been growing since 1983. Fermented and aged in stainless steel tanks and barrels. A highly elegant wine that convinces with an aromatic bouquet, fine fruit, much depth and beautiful length nice body and defined structure in the mouth supported by great freshness.

$ 365

Chardonnay “Rossj Bass” Gaja 2018

This wine is produced from grapes grown in several estate-owned vineyards. The Rossj vineyard, planted in 1984, is named for Angelo Gaja's younger daughter Rossana (Rossj). Bass is Piemontese for the Italian basso, meaning low, a name derived from the vineyard's position. Pheasants are featured on Rossj-Bass' label to commemorate the beautiful birds that inhabit the forests adjacent to GAJA's vineyards.

The nose opens with a floral character (jasmine and daisies), followed by fresh notes of green almond, sage, thyme and green tea leaves. On the entry, the wine is luscious, with juicy notes of nectarine, pear, mango and pineapple. The bright acidity refreshes the palate, finishing with mineral and balsamic notes of flint, mint and fern.

$ 255

Chardonnay “Gaia & Rey” Gaja 2018

Straw yellow in color, this Chardonnay has a rich nose with hints of toast and vanilla as well as aromas of citrus fruit. On the palate, it is full-bodied with concentrated and ripe fruit balanced by a lively acidity.

That wine was direct and linear reflecting the cooler summer months. This wine, however, promises to be more tonic, sharp and focused despite the warmer growing season. This pure expression of Chardonnay is made in a more reductive style in order to highlight that nervous and bright vein at the back. The winery is switching over
